

“THIS WORLD IS NOT MY HOME I’M JUST PASSING THROUGH”

I Peter 3:10-18

When we start believing the reality of the other side,
that's when we'll start behaving differently on this side
Don't look for the day of the Lord; look for the Lord of the day

Maranatha

A word early Christians would say to each other

It means the Lord is coming soon

THIS WORLD IS NOT MY HOME, I'M JUST PASSING THROUGH

We have studied both letters of Peter and have seen how anyone whose life would otherwise be weak, wobbly, and failure ridden can become Rock Solid through Christ. This is vital since life in this world is dynamic, shifting, and transitory.

THIS WORLD IS NOT MY HOME, I'M JUST PASSING THROUGH

This world is passing; its glory is fading. So, anyone who places all their energy and hope in this life alone will be disappointed. Today, as we end our series, we consider where we are eventually headed and how to arrive safely.

Peter Made Three Basic Declarations About the Future

I. Our Campground Is Temporary (vv. 10, 12)

Momentarily Preserved

Eventually Destroyed

Consist means held tightly together, cohere

III. Our Compass Is True

It Motivates Our Wills (v. 11)

It Settles Our Hearts (v. 14)

It Stabilizes Our Minds (vv. 15-16)

Closing Thoughts

We're not living for this world; we have a better one ahead

We should live with that in mind
