

Are You
Coachable?

Matthew
11:28-30

Summary of Today's Message

You will never find anyone better equipped to be your life coach than Jesus. But some of us are - at best - reluctantly coachable. Only when we decide to trust Jesus, and sign up to let Him coach us, will we discover the genius of the victorious Christian life.

It is the desire of God to coach you and coach me.

Allowing God to reshape our life
is an ongoing process

There is the academic mode

There is the spiritual mode

Our character is being shaped and molded into the image of Christ.

4. Romans 8:29

What does it take to be coachable?

Some of us are not coachable-let's be honest

Some of us are selectively coachable

Allowing God to reshape our life
is an ongoing process

So, the process begins with salvation-reconciliation- and then there is transformation.

My Heart Christ's Home

More than ten million readers have enjoyed Robert Boyd Munger's spiritually challenging meditation on Christian discipleship. Imagining what it would be like to have Jesus come to the home of our hearts,

My Heart Christ's Home

Munger moves room by room considering what Christ desires for us. In the living room we prepare to meet Christ daily. In the dining room we examine together what appetites should and should not control us.

My Heart Christ's Home

We even explore the closets in our lives that Christ can help us clean out. Munger's practical and profound booklet (now revised and expanded) helps you give Christ control over all of your life.

What does it take to be coachable?

Some of us are reluctantly coachable

We have to be completely coachable

Jesus is calling us to be on His team-Matthew 11:28-30
