

Palm Sunday

What the Master Needs

This was typical Eastern Hospitality

This would have been an honor to let a distinguished Rabbi to ride your donkey

Jesus had made arrangements in advance for use of the donkey and He set up a password of “the master needs him”

What the Master Needs

The owner loaned his donkey to Jesus

Because He saw Him as

THE MASTER

How God reacts to all believers

The true follower is willing to give what he has to the Lord.

Moses was asked to give his walking stick

Rahab gave a corner of her roof to hide the spies.

David gave his sling shot

How God reacts to all believers

The widow at Zarephath gave the last of her oil and flour to make a meal for Elijah

The Shummanite woman gave a room of her to home to Elisha

How God reacts to all believers

The Widow that Jesus praised gave her two cents

The young boy gave his five loaves and two fish.

The early church shared their possessions with those who had a need.

The true believer knows that what we have belongs to the Lord

The true believer knows that the value of what we have is multiplied when placed in the Lord's hands.

What is God asking of you?

God wants your heart

“Give Me thy heart,” says the Father above—
No gift so precious to Him as our love;
Softly He whispers wherever thou art,
“Gratefully trust Me and give Me thy heart.”
