AFFIRMATION

Sculpture

I took a piece of plastic clay
And idly fashioned it one day
And as my fingers pressed it still,
It moved and yielded to my will

AFFIRMATION

Sculpture

I came again when days were past

That bit of clay was hard at last.

The form I gave it, still it bore,

And I could change it never more.

And gently formed it day by day
I molded with my power and art
A young child's soft and yielding heart.

I came again when years were gone.

He was a man I looked upon

He still that early impress bore,

And I could change it never more.
